VOL. XX.—NO. 6031. PORTLAND, OREGON: MONDAY AUGUST 16 1880. PRICE—TEN CENTS.

GENERAL NEWS

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN

On to Chicago.

OMAHA, Aug 14.—The California excursion of ten Pullman coaches having on board 150 Knights Templar 100 ladies and the second California regimental band of twenty-one pieces arrived here this afternoon. There were fifteen commanderies from California in five divisions one commandery from Oregon one from Nevada one from Montana, and one from Utah At Council Bluffs they were met by a delegation from St. Bernard Commandery of Chicago The St. Bernard Commandery over the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy went to Chicago in two special trains elaborately and finely decorated with flowers banners etc The California Knights leave by special train over the Chicago and Rock Island to-morrow morning. The Wyoming delegation passed through this afternoon The Colorado delegation will pass through to-morrow afternoon.

An Interesting Religious Ceremony

BALTIMORE, Aug 14 —Fifty five young women took the black veil in the convent of Notre Dame at Goomanstown near this city Trains from Baltimore to Goomanstown were crowded in the morning with relatives and friends of the postulants The ceremony was imposing, impressive and witnessed by a crowded congregation.

Heavy Failure at Detroit.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—Detroit was startled by an unexpected business failure, that of Thomas McGraw of the firm of Walker McGraw & Co., who is president of the Michigan Savings bank and a prominent tobacco, grain and wool buyer of that city Liabilities heavy, assets, $960 000

DETROIT, Aug. 14 —Business circles were wholly taken by surprise this forenoon to learn of the assignment of Thos McGraw president of Globe Tobacco, Co, also of the Michigan Savings Bank and a large real estate owner. The cause of his failure is said to be large losses in wool transactions and in loading himself with real estate His assets were rightly figured at $250 000 · liabilities represent a much larger figure but cannot yet be stated.

A Bitter Fight Commenced.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 14.—The American Express Co. to-day filed a bill in the U. S. circuit court against the Peoria Indians and Evansville Railroad Co., and obtained a temporary injunction restraining the latter from interfering with the express company's business on its road. This is the first of what will probably be a bitter fight between the Gould railroad and the express companies.

Democrats and Greenbackers in Nebraska.

OMAHA Aug. 14.—It is reliably reported that the democrats and greenbackers of Nebraska are forming a fusion combination and will make a united effort to defeat the republicans this fall. The agreement is that the electoral tickets shall consist of four democrats and three greenback candidates. The greenbackers are allowed to name the candidates for governor and auditor, and the democrats are to have the remaining positions on the state ticket. Senatorial and representative candidates for legislature, are to come from both parties and places are to be distributed as equitably as possible. The greenbackers' state convention which was to meet at Wahoo the first Wednesday in September, has been postponed to meet at the same time and place with the democratic state convention.

THE YAZOO PLAN

Southern Style in Campaign Meetings

WASHINGTON Aug 14 —J H Randall, greenback campaign [illegible] letter just received here [illegible] experiences in Alabama He went to Kinder Hill [illegible] a barbecue and joint discussion between democrats and greenbackers He got [illegible] He says of the first democrat [illegible] that in the course of his speech he said that the confederacy still exists and has [illegible] and the Jeff Davis the best friend we ever had [illegible] devoted to our interests and if Hancock is elected [illegible] we have no doubt he will be [illegible] paid for all the property [illegible] radical rule [illegible] the great democratic party for the old south will now give us entire control of the general government When the greenbackers got [illegible] they got calm earnest attention until [illegible] auditor denounced the [illegible] Yankee and warned him to stand up [illegible] The meeting was broken up and the greenbackers warned to leave

Randall also relates his experience at Shubuta a town of Clarke county Miss near the Alabama line When he appeared to address the audience, he was greeted as follows "There's a greenbacker —— him!" "Three cheers for Hancock —— —— Yankee greenbackers He ought to be killed ——" "Let's give him ——" and other phrases of like character A well dressed young man perfectly sober separated from the throng and approaching him, delivered a note written on a leaf from his pocket book "Dear sir—We will give you and your pard just 35 minutes to pick up your duds and get out of town as lively as you can heel it Yours to death Boys of Shubuta" Randall replied "Do you mean to tell me an American law abiding citizen, attending strictly to business that I cannot stay in this town?" "Take the first train of cars young man," was the reply of the Mississippi bulldozer "We know you and you can't stay here You must go to the next station" Randall demanded "Who gives the order?" and was answered by the bulldozers "The boys of Shubuta Your time is passing You had better be getting along or you will catch ——" Randall understood this to indicate that they did not desire that he should expound any greenback theories in that neighborhood

WASHINGTON CITY.

Much Ado about Nothing.

WASHINGTON, Aug 14 —Thorough investigation of the recent alleged violation of the neutrality laws by Mexico in giving protection to prisoners escaped from New Laredo Tex, has been begun by the state department The first thing was to call upon the U S consul at New Laredo to investigate the matter and report, and also to obtain from the war department any reports which army officers may have made The secretary of war gave the necessary instructions and the military report is expected in a few days It is known that the Mexican government has assured U S Minister Morgan that the protection given to the escaped prisoners was not by the Mexican authorities nor with their sanction and that the Mexican government had nothing to do with the matter American officials are inclined to adopt this view and to believe that there is nothing in the facts to indicate that the Mexican government has violated the Guadalupe Hidalgo treaty. State department officials say that there is no ill feeling on the Mexican border between the two nationalities, and that there is not likely to be any trouble

The Spanish Cases.

Previous to leaving for Windsor, Vermont the secretary of state concluded his examination of recent alleged insults to American vessels in Spanish waters, and addressed a communication to the Spanish government

Protection Wanted.

A mail contractor on the route between Fort Davis, Texas, and El Paso, New Mexico asks for military protection against Indians The dispatch was referred to the war department

Good Financial Showing.

An official statement of imports and exports of specie for the fiscal year ending June 30 1880, has been prepared at the treasury department In regard to the movement of gold, it shows that during the last fiscal year the net imports of gold to the United States amounted to $77 158 331, a larger gain than ever before in the history of the country. Figures in regard to the exports and imports of silver are not as complete as desired, but are sufficiently full to show that the United States exported much more silver than it imported

American Products in Europe.

WASHINGTON, Aug 8 —The American consul at Geneva says that American beef and livestock have penetrated as far as that region, and the value of good cattle, raised in large numbers in Switzerland for the Paris and French markets, has been sensibly diminished by the importations from America Preserved meats and fruits from the United States are so well established and advertised that they may be left to take care of themselves but butter and cheese could be sold in much larger quantities in central and southern Europe and a profitable market for the more nutritious brands of American flour could be found

CRIMINAL MATTERS

A Fatal Row

DENVER, Col, Aug 14 —Dan Linehan, a whisky dealer at Buena Vista, last night fatally shot Deputy Sheriff Murray Farnsworth and slightly wounded Nath Eastman, another officer The disturbance occurred in Linehan's establishment all having been drinking Pistols were drawn and Farnsworth fired the first shot extinguishing the lamps after which thirteen shots were fired in the dark Farnsworth was shot through the heart

MAY'S LANDING, N J, Aug 14 —The verdict of the coroner's jury in the case of Jas Sweeney, killed in the railroad collision Wednesday was that he died by accident The jury refused to censure the railroad company or the engineer, although many favored that course

OFFICIAL SALARIES.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

In your issue of the 31st ult you say "The man who is fit to be governor or secretary of state should be able to make easily in other employments twice what we pay our governor or secretary" Are you not mistaken? Our governor has a salary of $1500 per year This has been increased by $200 given him by statute for visiting the penitentiary It is true this salary is not large, nor is the state large It is $500 more than is paid the governor in Michigan. His salary is but $1000, and the people of that state by a very decisive vote have just refused to increase it Our governor is not employed a great share of his time with his official duties, he can and usually does, follow his customary avocation A governor that had no avocation will be overpaid at $1500 We don't want to encourage that kind If he has any business he can prosecute it, and don't want more than $1500

Our secretary is given $1500 by the constitution, but under or over law, his pay has been and is much more The secretary receives $2 for every commission he issues to notaries public I don't know the number of such officers, but there can't be less than 500 in the state There are some other officers to whom he issues commissions and for which I think he receives a fee He receives $25 for recording each certificate of deposit to insurance companies and 5 per cent of all sales of insurance stamps I think the secretary does not now receive less than $3000 per year Under former secretaries it has been much more Are there not plenty of men fit to be secretary of state in the banks and counting houses of Portland who do not receive $3000? Are there any who receive $6000? Are there not some quite competent for secretary who do not receive more than $1500? Is it improbable that there are some who do not receive $1500? Isn't this talk a little wild?

Article XII of our constitution is as follows

SEC 1 —The governor shall receive an annual salary of $1500 The secretary of state shall receive an annual salary of $1500 The treasurer of state shall receive an annual salary of $800 The judges of the supreme court shall receive an annual salary of $2000 They shall receive no fees or perquisites whatever for the performance of any duties connected with their respective offices and the compensation of officers not fixed by this constitution shall be provided by law

This would seem to make it the duty of the secretary to pay all fees commissions &c, everything but the $1500 into the state treasury There can be no doubt about this if language means what it expresses Gov Thayer so construes it and has never drawn anything but his constitutional salary of $1500 per annum The $200 for visiting the penitentiary he decided he was not lawfully entitled to and has not drawn it So far as I know his predecessors have all taken it since the passage of the act granting it and Gov Woods in addition paid for his private carriage hire under the clause of the same act granting pay for carriages to and from the prison But of the fees of the secretary, all former secretaries, with possibly the exception of the first under the state government have pocketed them, and some of them as recent findings of Judge Deady shows much more I am not arraigning or complaining of the present secretary I am his friend and I like him And he has not only the excuse of precedent, but when an amendment to the bill concerning his office was proposed in one house of the last legislative assembly requiring him to pay all fees and perquisites into the state treasury it was voted down—by a close vote, I believe but defeated On the general subject permit me to mention a couple of instances of perquisites which have crept into—or more likely been slipped in by parties interested—our statutes and which ought to be slipped out or thrust out with many others of the kind that few persons but those who receive them know of The clerk of our supreme court receives [illegible] fees A [illegible] receives $5 per day for each day the court is in session for attending on the sittings of the court I need not say this $5 act ought to be repealed Also has been slipped in a provision granting the sheriff of the county where the supreme court is held per diem during the sittings of the court to be fixed by the court Custom I think has fixed this also at $5 per day and it is paid the sheriff of Marion county by the state although the court has its own bailiffs, has no use for the sheriff and makes none of him This too ought to be wiped out The pay of the clerk of the supreme court is a good deal more than that of the judges, and the compensation of the sheriff is probably greater than that of all three of the judges And I predict that clerks and sheriffs will see to it that no legislature makes it less

CHINA ON THE SEAS.

Her New Policy Explained by an Attache of the Legation at New York

The Trade of the World to be Revolutionized

The Matter Considered Trifling by the Chinese Consul at San Francisco—Etc

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

NEW YORK Aug 14 —The Herald has the following: Chin Lan Pin the Chinese minister to the United States has transmitted to Secretary Evarts a circular issued by the Chinese government to its representatives abroad formally giving notice that the government of China has revoked the ancient decree prohibiting the natives of the celestial empire from engaging in commerce with foreign ports and announcing further that Chinese merchants may trade with foreigners at will The circular also further instructs Chin Lan Pin in relation to transit certificates concerning which there has been for many years a difference of opinion between the Chinese government and foreign merchants doing business in China The Chinese minister was found yesterday in a mansion in West Thirty first street which he had hired for the embassy's home The latter are occupying the house only temporarily their intention being to go to Washington early in October and it is understood though unofficially that their future home will be in the federal city The minister who is accredited to the governments of the United States Spain and Peru has established an office in Madrid and left a charge d'affaires in control and will do the same in Peru as soon as a cessation of hostilities between that country and Chile will admit. An apprehensive cabinet in Washington he said might view it as a breach of decorum if he were to talk to the public through the columns of the Herald concerning the circular that he has sent to Evarts The Chinese minister politely referred the Herald representative Felix Marsh secretary of legation for Lima the only English member of the embassy Marsh was no restricted by any such considerations, and as he was thoroughly familiar with the recent correspondence between the Chinese government and that government's representative in this country, he was able to impart a clear idea of the situation The circular Mr Marsh said, gives notice to the commercial nations of the earth that foreigners in the five treaty ports are no longer to enjoy a monopoly of China's trade with the outside world, but that natives of the celestial empire may hereafter enter into relations at will Another point in the circular that may be of interest to American and European merchants who are transacting business in China is an answer that is given to complaints which have been made by foreigners that they have been subjected to the payment of local duties in every province through which they have transported goods The government's answer in its circular is that the merchants transit certificate may be made to cover all the duties to the point of destination or the merchant may take a transit certificate subject to the payment of duties in every province In this respect, Mr Marsh continued, there has been no change in Chinese customs since the treaty ports were opened to outside commerce, and the circular is sent to the capitals of friendly governments to be published for the benefit of merchants. I have no doubt that this act of revocation which releases Chinese merchants from restrictions will force China into new and close relations with America and Europe No doubt thousands of merchants along the densely populated banks of China's tens of thousands of miles of rivers and along her densely populated thousands of miles of sea coast will avail themselves of their new born liberty, and that China will soon take rank among the maritime nations. Indeed, already a steamship owned by Chinese merchants and manned by Chinese officers and crew is on the Pacific and the Chinese in San Francisco are looking for her arrival daily It is the beginning of the demolition of the Chinese wall is it not? the reporter of the Herald inquired Certainly, in time it will carry European and American customs into China. Indeed Chinese exclusiveness has already been relaxed so far that in the government's ill equipped and badly disciplined army of 1,200 000 men European tactics and implements have been introduced China is casting cannon that are not inferior to those that are turned out of American and European foundries and they have actually begun to build an iron clad war vessel There was a rumor lately that China was about to employ foreigners in her army and navy and we had no end of applications at this embassy Of course the rumor was baseless but Chinese exclusiveness will outlast the living generation The people will reject railroads and telegraphs until their own countrymen build them Then there will be no hostility to these great modern civilizers. The Chinese dislike foreign encroachment, and in this respect the question of the abrogation of the ancient restrictions upon the Chinese trade may result in a loss to the few Americans and European who have been for years making fortunes out of their monopoly of treaty ports but on the whole it will likely be a benefit to the world as it will stimulate the world The Chinese minister will probably transact all his diplomatic business in Madrid and Lima through his deputies, and as New York city is the real capital of the United States may I assume that he will make this city his home while he is in America, the reporter of the Herald inquired Mr Marsh replied that he would be glad to be able to answer the question, but that he could not venture to speak for the representative of the Chinese government.

In the office of A. A Low & Bros, at No 31 Burling Slip, it was said that taxes upon goods passing through the provinces in the Chinese empire had for many years been a subject of controversy between the Chinese and foreign governments. As to the permission given to Chinese merchants to trade with the outside world, the gentlemen in Messrs Low's office were not prepared to speak yesterday A merchant whose trade is with China said "I don't want to thrust my name before the public but I should like to say that the trade from which some foreigners in the treaty ports have realized such gigantic fortunes will now necessarily fall into the hands of native Chinese exclusively The latter will naturally give their own countrymen the preference and New York and Liverpool and London merchants in Canton and in Shanghai may as well pull up stakes at once The measure will bring down the price of Chinese shippers from the interior of the vast empire of China and from her thousands of miles of sea-coast she can deal with American importers direct There will be one less middleman's profit to pay Next after this opening up of the commerce of China to the commercial world you may look forward to the introduction of our methods of manufacture, and with these the cheap labor of Chinese can drive American manufacturers out of Asia. China will thus monopolize the Asiatic market. This new move of the Chinese government is the beginning of a revolution of the commerce of the world

The "Herald's" Comments.

NEW YORK, Aug 15 —The Sunday Herald comments as follows The most conservative nation in the world finds itself tempted, it appears, out of its haughty seclusion by the seductions of modern trade It is not so long since proud but industrious England was forcing opium at the cannon's mouth into the flowery land and it seems but yesterday that China was at all contented with permitting anything like reciprocity in commerce Yet to day she makes her first entry in the lists for the carrying trade of the sea The Chinese steamer Ho Chung which is in a few days to pass through the Golden Gate will doubtless be the precursor of a merchant fleet flying the dragon flag that will ultimately penetrate every port that a pound of tea can be sold in So novel is the experiment that our treasury officials have to look cautiously about them and find out what duties are leviable upon the steamer's arrival but these points once settled, if China's enterprise follows up the experiment as it should the result will be the pushing of China more rapidly into the family of nations than by any other step her people could take The Chinese ship owners will not desire to labor under disabilities in foreign ports and to avoid them China must swing her own gates wider and wider ajar Where she needs consuls and ambassadors now she will need men of war presently, and gradually she will find herself penetrated to the core by the restless spirit of modern trade Her subjects have shown that in commerce they can hold their own with any people, and we may be sure that once upon the sea they will give to China more and more of the profit which is legitimately hers. They will not reach success in this new departure without encountering heavy opposition in which since the United States is without a mercantile marine of any account we shall have little part but in England France and [illegible] and the news will create a stir of such interest

What the Chinese Consul at San Francisco Says.

SAN FRANCISCO Aug 14 —At the Chinese consulate in this city there is a disposition shown to deny [illegible] the full text or expression of the Chinese minister as given in New York dispatches regarding new commercial privileges to be granted Chinese subjects by their government The consul states that the whole amount of the matter is this The Chinese steamer Ho Chung has been running [illegible] carrying Chinese laborers for the Hawaiian plantations Being in need of repairs she comes to this port with a cargo of Hawaiian produce While here she will probably go into the dry dock and undergo a general overhauling On her return trip she is expected to take a number of Chinese passengers especially old decrepit and otherwise helpless or needy individuals As to the report that any new departure is intended on the part of the Chinese government the consul avers that there is great misunderstanding, and that restrictions on Chinese commerce were removed years ago that extra duties and tonnage fees imposed by the United States on Chinese vessels only exist at present because there has never been a Chinese arrival here before to call for their removal but that in anticipation of the arrival of the Ho Chung the request for such removal has been made and will no doubt be granted China having by long ago removed [illegible] is entitled for own commercial matters to some concessions when asked for that in short all talk of China entering actively under new commercial regulations into the trade of the world is exaggerated nonsense

Boy Killed—Mrs. Clark and Son Convicted of Manslaughter

SEATTLE, Aug 14 —A twelve year old son of Mr Dawson, of Samish, while visiting his uncle, J V Dawson, telegraph operator at San Juan, last week accidentally shot himself by the careless handling of a shot gun, the entire charge entering his neck and killing him instantly.

Mrs Clark and her eleven-year old son, Thomas who have been on trial before the district court at LaConner during the past week, were yesterday convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to the territorial penitentiary. The son, it will be remembered, at the instigation of his mother a few months ago shot and instantly killed Mitchell Padden, a prominent citizen of Whatcom county, while the latter was engaged in fencing in a piece of land in dispute between the Clark and Padden families

CENSUS FRAUDS

Gen Walker superintendent of the census is reported as saying that the census of St Louis in 1870 was grossly fraudulent. It is his opinion that no less than 50 000 fictitious names were inserted in the rolls. This opinion is not based on hearsay or conjecture but on evidence which will be supplied in a few days. The frauds are gross and the persons guilty of them might be punished by fine and imprisonment if it were not for the statute of limitations. The making of a bogus census is a serious offense. The persons engaged in the St Louis conspiracy very likely had forgotten what the census was for. They were thinking of local pride and the great satisfaction of beating Chicago. They did not fully realize perhaps that they were cheating not only Chicago but the whole United States. The census is taken to determine the apportionment of congressmen. By the census of 1870 St Louis was given 310 864 inhabitants. The city has now only 333 577. This would show a gain of less than 23 000 in ten years. In fact however the city has gained more than 100 000 in that time. Hence no doubt the Chicago Tribune is right in asserting that even more than 50 000 fraudulent names were added to the lists of St Louis ten years ago. The number was more probably 70 000 or 80 000 and these false names gave Missouri a member of congress more than she was entitled to have. Since 1872 St Louis and a few adjacent towns have been represented by three members; they were entitled to but two. Yet they will continue to have an excessive representation till 1882. As the Tribune says, if the fraud were solitary and not likely to be repeated it would not be worth much attention at this time but there is reason to believe that the tactics pursued in 1870 by St Louis have been put in practice on a more extensive scale by communities and states in 1880. Kentucky for instance gained but 202 577 between 1840 and 1850 162 856 between 1850 and 1860 and 160 326 between 1860 and 1870. Yet the census returns already in show a gain between 1870 and 1880 of 413 320 or more than the preceding quarter of a century. This gain is reported when the state has passed its period of greatest growth and is well settled. The city of Louisville has increased but 25 000 of the 413 320. The abnormal and surprising gains have been made in the back counties, to which, so far as we have been informed, there has been no unusual migration in the past ten years. The returns from Missouri Arkansas and Louisiana are equally suspicious. Arkansas, for example now reports 810 000 and the enumeration is not yet finished. In 1870 its population was but 484,471 and there has been no very noticeable emigration to the state during ten years past. It will be remembered that the senate contended with the president about the appointment of census supervisors for the south, and in many cases refused to confirm any except a class of politicians who evidently were wanted for peculiar reasons. The figures reported suggest that many of them have been doing the work which was expected of them. It may yet be the duty of Gen Walker to investigate thoroughly the manner in which the census has been taken in these states. He should see to it that the frauds so easily and successfully accomplished in St Louis in 1870 have not been imitated on a much larger scale throughout the south. When the census shall be used to secure misrepresentation in congress the fundamental principle of republican government—the right of the majority to rule—will be attacked, and it will become the duty of honest men without regard to party, to protest and see to it that the wrong is righted

ORIGIN OF A GREAT IMPOSTURE

The real author of the Book of Mormon has long been known to have been one Rev Solomon Spaulding, a retired minister who, at the time the Book was written, was a resident of Washington county, Pennsylvania not far from the city of Pittsburg. The book was in the form of a romance purporting to be a history of the peopling of America by the ten lost tribes of Israel. Spaulding gave it the title of 'Manuscript Found," and intended to publish with it by way of preface or advertisement a fictitious account of its discovery in Ohio, where he had at one time resided. Curiosity had led him to examine some of the numerous earth mounds of Ohio, in which he discovered portions of skeletons and other relics. Among them hieroglyphic characters were found, which, though perfectly unintelligible, suggested the idea of a biblical romance. Prominent characters in the work were given peculiar names—among them Mormon Maroni, Lamenite and Nephi. The author who had already written several romances, read this work to friends, and finally applied to a Pittsburg printer to have it published but it was declined, after having remained in the hands of the printer some time. At that time Sidney Rigdon who figured as a preacher among the "saints" some twenty years later, was employed in the Pittsburg office, and very probably saw the original work. How it got into the hands of Joseph Smith is not certainly known. Rigdon may have copied it, but this is uncertain. It is certain however, that the Spaulding romance is the "Book of Mormon" almost without alteration. The August number of Scribner contains an article on the subject by Mrs Ellen E Dickinson, who presents some additional facts in regard to the romance, which she has obtained from Mrs. M S McKinstry, daughter of Mr Spaulding, now residing in Washington City, and about seventy five years of age. Mr Spaulding died in 1816. In 1823 one Joseph Smith, who is described as "a disreputable fellow wandering about the country professing to discover gold and silver and lost articles by means of a "seer stone," claimed to have been directed in a vision to a hill near Palmyra N Y where he had discovered gold plates, curiously inscribed. In 1825 Smith called upon Mr Thurlow Weed, who was then publisher of the Rochester Telegraph, at Rochester N Y and asked him to print a manuscript. Mr Weed in a letter under date of April 12 1880 relates the circumstances of Smith's interview with him, and says Smith repeated the story of the vision the golden plates, etc., and produced from his hat a tablet from which he proceeded to read the first chapter of the Book of Mormon. Mr Weed says he listened until wearied with what seemed an incomprehensible jargon and then referred Smith to a book publisher in Palmyra. Five years later 1830 the Mormon bible was printed at Palmyra, and two years later the nucleus of a Mormon settlement was formed in Ohio. When the book was first given to the public and was read in Pennsylvania, its striking similarity to the manuscript of Mr Spaulding was remarked by several who had heard the latter read by its author. Smith or whoever had copied the manuscript had closely followed Mr Spaulding's story even to the professed finding of the plates in an earth mound and the use of the same peculiar personal names, but he had added the marriage tenets to conform with the new religion to his own ideas and purposes. Smith did not have the original for this is known to have been in possession of the Spaulding family down to the year 1834. In her statement Mrs McKinstry refers to the [illegible] of her father and recalls the circumstance of a trunk containing his papers which her mother had taken with the family to New York at the time she had removed after her husband's death. Among the contents of this trunk Mrs McKinstry distinctly remembers to have seen the manuscript of Manuscript Found. In the year 1834 a man named Hurlburt requested the loan of the manuscript representing that he had been a convert to Mormonism but had given it up and wished to expose the imposture. As he came with recommendations he was allowed to take it and the family have never seen it since. There is no possible way of finding out what Hurlburt did with the production but there was a report that he had sold it for $500 to the Mormons and that they destroyed it. When Mrs Spaulding removed to New York after the death of her husband she resided for a time with her brother William H Sabine for whom Joseph Smith was working as a farm hand. It is possible and even probable that he may have obtained access to the trunk containing the manuscript and copied it. Or as before suggested Rigdon who subsequently figured so prominently in Mormon affairs might have copied it while in the hands of the printer at Pittsburg. It is certain that one of these men did it or perhaps both may have taken copies working at different times and before they knew each other and that their common knowledge of the book afterwards brought them together and established a bond between them. At all events the facts are highly interesting showing as Mrs Dickinson says that out of this curious old romance of Solomon Spaulding and the ridiculous seer stone of Joseph Smith has grown this monstrous Mormon state which presents a problem that the wisest politician has failed to solve and whose outcome lies in the mystery of the future

Unless General John McDonald of whisky ring fame is lying with more than his ancient eloquence and fervor he is engaged in the management of a literary bureau whose publications will be exceedingly interesting to some prominent politicians. He is preparing for the press a history of the St. Louis whisky ring which he claims will make many hearts ache. He has given a Chicago correspondent some points advance sheets as it were. He says the ring was first organized to raise money to secure Grant's second nomination and that the silent soldier knew all about it as well as all about the subsequent operations of the machine. He flourished a manuscript history of the operations which he says he prepared for publication in case his pardon, promised before his conviction, was delayed. He read it to certain persons when his pardon was quickly forthcoming. McDonald says he has letters for which he has been offered $10,000. All of which is interesting at any rate. But it is as well to beware of these confessed and convicted rascals who having no character left tell tales about the wickedness which they allege others have committed with them and through them.

Since the supreme court of the state of Indiana is about to grant a rehearing with a view to reversal of a decision recently made by it why might not the justices of the supreme court of the state of Oregon take similar action in regard to certain cases determined unjustly as most people believe, by their predecessors? Never should error, in justice and wrong be a bar to any kind of lawful action for enforcement of justice and right. As a result of certain decisions of the supreme judicial tribunal of our state property in large amounts justly belonging to various individuals has been wrested from its rightful owners and bestowed upon others. Some of these cases have scandalized the state at home and abroad. The people would like to see the grounds of these decisions examined anew by a tribunal composed of men in whom, as the late election showed, they have higher confidence than in the judges whom they retired

The breach between democratic factions in New York appears to be widening. Tammany has resolved to nominate a separate state ticket and a call has been issued for a state convention to meet at Albany to put such ticket in nomination. The reason for this action on the part of Tammany is alleged to be the prominence of Tilden in the counsels of the party. Tammany also complains that the Hancock campaign in New York is wholly under the direction of the Tilden managers, and this adds no little to the dissatisfaction. At the great meeting recently held in the city of New York to ratify the nominations of Hancock and English Tilden presided and Tammany staid away entirely. These are portentous signs for New York.

Some of the democratic organs are saying that southern men like Lamar and Wade Hampton ought to make speeches throughout the northern states. Suppose they make such speeches throughout the north as Hampton made the other day in trying to reconcile the democratic factions in Virginia, that is suppose they tell the country that the cause represented now by the democratic party embodies the same principles for which Lee and Jackson fought for four years," and that it is now time to "remember the men who poured out their blood for the success of these principles." That would present the issue in the north just as these eminent democrats present it in the south. And it would probably be highly offensive

H. W. S.

Not a few paltry newspapers of Oregon expend the greater part of such energies as they possess in attacks upon THE OREGONIAN. This is to be expected, as THE OREGONIAN earns the envy of these alleged newspapers by its own pre-eminence. It is part of the price it willingly pays for its acknowledged position as the only paper of the northwest which is sought by the public. A journal which is the only one of general circulation in a great community may well afford to let this fact attest the estimation in which it is held and need not trouble itself about exhibitions of spite on the part of pretended newspapers whose grievance is that it is sought while they are neglected.

It seems that the greenbacker fares no better than the republican in Yazoo land. The experiences of one J H Randall in Alabama and Mississippi will induce him to avoid campaigning in that quarter in future. He was convinced. But there was nothing new or unusual in the manifestations he witnessed. They were in the line of General Hancock's "full vote, free ballot and fair count" and moreover were nothing different from the attentions which were bestowed on anti slavery men in the south twenty years ago. He who wants the negro to be a free voter in the south is now dealt with just as he was then who wanted the negro to be a free man

Reports say that Maine, where last year the democrats and greenbackers had a majority is now going republican by 7500. The campaign is becoming very active all over the state. Republicans are making the greatest effort they have ever put forth. The election will take place on the 13th of September

In the letter from W Stanley on "penitentiary statistics," printed on Saturday it is stated that one item in Watkinds account was raised from $1 to $400 and another from $3 00 to $3.00. It is proper for us to say that these were printers errors

Independent Criticism

THE GOOD FEELING ERA

There is at this time a good deal of gush and bosh about the era of good feeling between the north and the south. It is all based on the assumption that the south should be allowed by force and fraud to govern the country. The tone of the southern press indicates what is meant by the era of good feeling as understood in that section. We see a piece in the Memphis Avalanche which illustrates it. That paper tried for some time to be a conservative but as conservative journals cannot live in the south it fell back into the old Bourbon rut. One would suppose if any people of the south would feel kindly toward the north those of Memphis would. But a southern democrat writes to the Avalanche to congratulate that journal on its return to its old correct position in politics and in the course of his letter uses the following language

The fact is before we can expect the prosperity of the good old day before the war in the south we must have the same homogeneity of public sentiment. As regards questions relating to the negro we must have but one party and that the democratic party. White men who dare to avow themselves here as republicans should be promptly branded as the bitter and malignant enemies of the south. The name of every northern man who like Eaton and Bigelow presumes in this community to aspire to office through republican votes should be saturated with stench. We can spare all such and would caution such as these who think of coming south to be careful to keep away

You Mr Editor must hang out again your small pox flag and rid our community of such vermin

You may think me a little bold in using such language upon the anniversary of our flight from the yellow fever in 1879. The north to be sure sent us some money but we scorn the imputation of beggary. The north but returned a little of the money it stole from us during the war

No sir we must put an end forever to this shameless effrontery of northern men or republicans aspiring to office in the south. They must keep back seats and very quiety ones or get out

I was glad to see you let your correspondents loose upon that blatant radical William R Moore. The whole lot must be rendered infamous and odious.

As for the negroes let them amuse themselves if they will by voting the radical ticket. We have the count

OFFICE OF THE

PACIFIC MUTUAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF CALIFORNIA.

SACRAMENTO, July 1st 1880

To all Desirous of Securing the Benefits of Life Insurance:

The first consideration with applicants for life insurance is, or at least should be SAFETY. Will the Money Paid out for the Policy be Prudently Invested? Are the Affairs of the Company Honestly and Efficiently Administered? When the Policy Becomes a Claim, will it be Promptly Paid, and thus the object which induced the payment of the premiums be fully attained? These are queries naturally suggested, and the character of the answers determines the course of the questioner and the selection of his Company.

In this connection, the Managers of the PACIFIC MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY respectfully beg leave to submit the following facts and statements concerning their Company

1 Since its organization A D 1868 it has paid 333 death losses, on policies amounting in the aggregate to $90 975

2 It has Paid to Policy Holders, for Matured Endowments, Dividends, and Surrender Values, in Round Numbers, $1,000 000.

3. Its losses have been paid Promptly and without Litigation. No judgment arising from a Policy claim has ever been rendered against it and it has no suits of this character pending

4 It has repeatedly been examined by Sworn Experts, and most thorough and searching investigations made of its condition and business and IN EVERY CASE its Solvency and Trustworthiness have been Demonstrated.

5 Its Stockholders and Directors are widely known as among the most capable business men and ablest financiers of the State of California and the integrity of their management is unquestioned

6 The laws of the State including the constitutional provisions affecting corporations are of the most rigid character such as to make the Company one of the safest institutions of its kind

Section 3 of Article XII of the NEW CONSTITUTION of the State of California is as follows

SEC 3. Each stockholder of a corporation or joint stock association shall be individually and personally liable for such proportion of all its debts and liabilities contracted or incurred during the time he was a stockholder as the amount of stock or shares owned by him bears to the whole of the subscribed capital stock or shares of the corporation or association. The Directors or Trustees of corporations and joint stock associations shall be jointly and severally liable to the creditors and stockholders for all moneys embezzled or misappropriated by the officers of such corporation or joint stock association during the term of office of such Director or Trustee

7 Its policy contracts contain no restrictions upon residence or travel and its forms of insurance are unusually attractive. The Low Rate Deposit Endowment and Mutual Investment Policies are peculiar to this Company and offer advantages to the insured which are not surpassed if equaled by those of any other Company

8. When desired Policies can be registered by the Insurance Commissioners of California on the payment of a moderate fee and a policy holder in the PACIFIC MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY of California has then the absolute guarantee of the State of California that the money held by this Company against the contingency of his death is secured by bonds and mortgages deposited in the State Treasury. With December 31st 1879 the Company closed its eleventh year and in so doing affords the only instance on record in which a life insurance company in the eleventh year of its existence was enabled to pay its death losses from interest receipts; not only was this done but in addition thereto a considerable surplus remained

Believing ourselves entitled to the confidence and business of such as propose affecting insurance upon human life we solicit their patronage and pledge ourselves to discharge to the best of our ability the important and sacred trust devolved upon us

The Daily Oregonian.

MONDAY MORNING, AUG. 16, 1880.

East Portland Route.—Henry Warren has charge of the routes of The Oregonian in East Portland, and will make all collections for subscriptions there.

CITY.

The Excursion.—The excursion from Portland to Albany and return yesterday was very largely attended, and proved thoroughly enjoyable to those attending. A few minutes past 8 o'clock the train, consisting of eleven passenger coaches, "pulled out" from the depot, and sped away toward Albany. A number of excursionists boarded the train at the various stations along the route, so that every available seat was filled long before Albany was reached, many being compelled to stand. It is estimated that not less than 800 persons visited Albany on the excursion train. On arriving there—at 15 minutes to 12—the excursionists adjourned without delay to the dining room of the hotel, which stood at the depot, where a very substantial meal was in readiness. At the conclusion of dinner, dancing commenced at the large platform. Hundreds participated in this pleasant and exhilerating recreation for several hours. At 5 o'clock the train started homeward and arrived at East Portland at 9:15. The entire affair was managed admirably and reflects much credit on all concerned. Not an accident occurred during the day, and nothing transpired to mar the general enjoyment of the excursionists. Great credit is due to Mr. [illegible] Brandt who manipulated the [illegible], and to the very gentlemanly conductors, Mr. Shan Conser and Mr. M. [illegible]. These three gentlemen were vigilant and discharged their respective duties in a manner satisfactory to all. The proceeds of the excursion are quite substantial.

Charged with Defrauding Creditors.—The grocery store of Patrick Hellen, on Taylor street near Fourth, was attached Saturday by Sheriff [illegible], and the proprietor arrested on a charge of defrauding his creditors. It is an action brought by W. H. Rattenbury, manager of the Legal and Commercial Union Mercantile Agency, as assignee for the claims of the firm of Wadhams & Elliott and Corbitt & Macleay, to recover the sum of $590 51 due them. The complaint for fraud sets forth that the defendant has been guilty of fraud in incurring a portion of said debt, and two hundred dollars thereof, and in incurring and contracting the obligations for which said action is brought, and that the defendant has within the last thirty days disposed of his property with intent to defraud his creditors." At the time the sheriff took possession of his store and supposed stock of goods, nothing was found but a lot of empty barrels and boxes piled up with apparent carefulness, giving the supposition of their being unbroken packages, the inventory showing, however, only a few cans of green corn, beans, oysters and baking powder. Hellen was unable to give bail, and is now confined in the county bastile.

A New Organ.—For some months past an organ fund has been growing in connection with the Taylor street M. E. church until it has gone beyond $2000, the greater part of which is on deposit at interest. The committee having the matter in charge and in common with the membership wishing to purchase an instrument that will be in keeping with the magnitude and general character of the building, have delayed purchase until the present, but have lately entered into an agreement for a magnificent instrument at a cost exceeding $3000. This fine organ will be in its place in the church by [illegible].

[illegible].—A coal oil lamp that exploded caused a fire in a Chinese wash house at No. 111 Fourth street, near Washington, about 11 o'clock Saturday night. A general alarm was sounded and responded to with unusual promptness. The wash house and contents, owned by [illegible], and valued at $1500, are a total loss. The adjoining building, corner Fourth and Washington, owned by Mr. J. M. Gearin, was slightly damaged, as was also the stock of [illegible] & Wagner, who occupied the building. Stock and building fully insured.

The "Wide West" Cylinder.—The accident to the Wide West while en route to this city was far more serious than at first supposed. The cylinder head was blown out and the entire casting ruined. The cylinder is [illegible] inch bore and 8 foot stroke, and must be replaced by a new one. The Willamette iron works and Smith Bros. & Watson are bidding for the job. It will cost about $1200 and take nearly five days to place the steamer in condition to go upon her route.

[illegible].—On yesterday afternoon a man named August Mayer, who resides in East Portland and is a butcher by trade, was riding on horseback near the Fourth-street bridge in this city. In crossing the railroad track his horse stumbled and, throwing Mr. Mayer across the iron rail, fell upon him, injuring him very severely. A physician was called, who examined the injured man and found that he had received internal hurts which may prove fatal.

Freight Charges Refunded.—Freight charges, amounting to $54 50, on the new desks and seats for the Waitsburg schoolhouse, were refunded by order of Captain John C. Ainsworth, of the O. R. & N. Co., and H. V. Fairweather, general superintendent of the W. W. & C. R. R. Co. The act of courtesy was duly appreciated and acknowledged by the school board.

The Grant Cup.—A large number of persons are very anxious to know what arrangements, if any, have been made for the race for the Grant cup. It has been unofficially stated that the 21st of this month has been fixed as the date of the race, but no authentic information is offered either as to time, or competing crews. Will not the [illegible] of the clubs give the desired information?

German Lecturer.—Herr M. Lichtenstein, of San Francisco, will lecture in Turn Halle this evening on the principles of the Turners' Society and the advantage of a systematic gymnastic training. Mr. Lichtenstein is spoken of as a deep thinker and brilliant speaker, and those of our German fellow citizens who attend will, no doubt, be richly entertained.

Street Row.—A row occurred about six o'clock last evening near the corner of First and C streets, in which half a dozen athletic [illegible] took part. Judge Bushwiler appeared on the scene, proclaiming peace, and was the recipient of a powerful, well-directed blow in his right eye, which felled him to the earth.

Pedestrianism.—The Pacific Life of San Francisco says that Colonel Andrews, of the Diamond Palace, is coming to Portland with a number of professional walkers for the purpose of giving an exhibition in this city.

The "Freeman."—The ship Freeman completed her cargo at Hustler's wharf in Astoria on Friday for Liverpool. She has on board [illegible] cases of salmon and 100 long tons of wheat.

Crew Transferred.—The entire crew of the steamship Elder was transferred Saturday to the Columbia, which sails for San Francisco to-morrow morning.

[illegible].—At 4 o'clock this morning wild geese—the first of the season—were seen flying south. Does this mean an early winter?

A DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.

Miss Eva Burbank, of Lafayette, Drowned while Bathing in the Surf at Ilwaco.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Astoria, Aug. 15.—Miss Eva Burbank, aged 18, one of a party of summer visitors at Ilwaco, was carried out by the surf and drowned while bathing on the weather beach at 3 P. M. to-day. The body was carried out to sea, but may wash ashore at the next tide. Deceased was the daughter of the Hon. A. R Burbank, of Lafayette, Oregon.

This startling announcement will sadden many hearts to-day. Beautiful, amiable and accomplished, Eva Burbank was a favorite not only at her home, but in Portland, where much of her girlhood was passed. Many will mourn the death of a dear friend, while her parents, to whom this page will rudely tell their sorrow, will weep for an only child.

FIRE THIS MORNING.

The Warehouse of Hawthorne, Newbury & Co. and Other Buildings Destroyed.

At twenty minutes before 2 o'clock this morning fire was discovered by Officer Hickey in the front part of the warehouse of Newbury, Hawthorne & Co., at the southeast corner of Front and Market streets, a large two-story wooden building, piled from top to bottom with agricultural machinery. The flames spread with wonderful rapidity, had enveloped the warehouse, leaping high toward the heavens and reaching blighting flashes toward adjoining buildings. The engines arrived in a short time, but the water supply was so distant and limited that full ten minutes elapsed before a stream could be started, and that was of such small volume as to be of little service.

The roofs of half a dozen dwellings soon caught and at 2 o'clock were burning briskly, but at this time several good streams were put on, and further mischief will be prevented. The warehouse with its contents is completely destroyed, and houses owned by Messrs. Zimmerman, Lewis and Hornstrom badly damaged. A small dwelling adjoining the warehouse on the south, occupied by Mrs. Bennett, was entirely consumed. The warehouse was owned by Dr. J. A. Chapman.

It is impossible at this hour to ascertain the origin of the fire or to estimate the losses, which will aggregate a large figure. Insurance cannot be ascertained, but Newbury Hawthorne & Co. are understood to be fully covered.

2:30 A. M.—The fire is now under control.

GENERAL GEORGE STONEMAN.

Visit of This Well-known Soldier—What He Had to Do with Claiming San Juan Island—His Views on the Indian Question, etc.

General George Stoneman, of Los Angeles, and family returned Saturday evening from a short visit to Vancouver and Walla Walla, and is registered at the Esmond. General Stoneman, then a lieutenant, visited this portion of the Pacific coast in 1853, '54 and '55, and now expresses great surprise at the wonderful development of the Willamette valley, the growth of Portland, but, above all, of the immense wheat fields surrounding Walla Walla. He believes, with those who have become associated with the northwest coast, that it is still in the infancy of its prosperity, and he predicts an immense immigration during the coming decade.

General Stoneman in 1855—then a captain—visited Oregon and Washington territories under orders of General Wool, commander of the department, inspecting the military posts. He made the tour of Puget Sound in a row boat hired from Indians. He was the first person who suggested the idea that San Juan island should be occupied by the U. S. government and so recommended to General Wool, who adopted the recommendation. General Wool established a post on the island under command of Captain Pickett. The British government of course protested, and General Scott came to the coast and held a conference on the subject with an embassador from the royal court. The point in dispute was whether the boundary line should run east of the island or west, General Scott maintaining that it should be west and the Englishman the opposite. It was finally left to King William of Prussia for arbitration, and he decided in favor of the United States. Pending the decision of King William there was joint occupancy of the island by the Americans and British. For the possession of San Juan island the United States is indebted, primarily, to Gen. Stoneman.

Gen. Stoneman is one of the board of ten Indian commissioners of the United States and combines the pleasure of this trip with gathering information concerning the tribes of Oregon and Washington. He has made the Arizona and Nevada Indians the subject of much study and observation, and is making the study of tribes of other sections preparatory to giving his views at the meeting of the board next January. In conversation with an Oregonian reporter yesterday, he expressed himself as opposed to Schurz's Indian policy. He thinks that while the government should sacredly keep all treaties heretofore made, that no treaties should be entered into in the future. Congress, he thinks, should make laws for the red men just as it does for the white, the black, and the yellow, require strict obedience to such laws, and punish every breach of them. He is of the opinion that diseases from which civilized persons easily recover, but which are almost always fatal to Indians will soon exterminate the latter, and that the entire country west of the Rocky Mountains will soon be as free from them as California is now. He cites as an instance the Indians who in the days of the Hudson Bay trappers occupied Sauvie's, then known as Bloody island. They were a source of great annoyance to the trappers when the latter passed up and down the river, and a trip was seldom made without a fight. The chills and fever got into the systems of the redskins one fall, and the next spring not a soul was left on the island—a portion died, and the remainder moved away and were never heard from afterwards. They know no cure for smallpox, measles or scarlet fever, and it soon thins their ranks.

Gen. Stoneman will be remembered for his distinguished services during the rebellion, the recital of which forms no unimportant portion of the history of the war. He leaves this morning for Roseburg, returning the next day. He will then visit the Sound, and return to San Francisco on the 26th instant.

From the National Surgical Institute, Indianapolis, Indiana, will visit Portland, Oregon, at St. Charles Hotel, September 7th, 8th and 9th, 1880, provided with a complete and expensive outfit of apparatus designed to treat every form of Spinal Disease, Hip and Knee Disease, Crooked Limbs, Club Feet, Paralysis, &c. Piles and Fistula certainly cured. This institution has no unequaled reputation in the successful treatment of all of above diseases. Interested parties should not fail to see these Surgeons. Returning home, overland, they will stop off September 11th and 13th at Eugene City, 15th at Roseburg, and 18th and 20th at Jacksonville, Oregon.

Physicians recommend good beer to invalids—Molson's is a prime article.

Just received at Harris' Music Store, a large assortment of the famous Peters' Edition, the cheapest music published in the world.

Parties declining housekeeping, who want their household goods sold at auction or private sale, will do well to call on T. J. O'Connor, 64 First street.

NO NECESSITY

To go any longer without a timepiece, $14 will buy a good heavy silver watch, which is guaranteed for two years by W. FRIEDLANDER, 65 First street.

MADAM DE SEPTE

Would respectfully inform the ladies that she has opened Dressmaking Parlors at 155 Third st., corner of Morrison (2d floor,) where she is prepared to make up LADIES' SUITS, POLONAISE, CLOAKS, DOLMANS, &c in the very latest styles and at moderate prices. Having had a great deal of experience at Dressmaking in Berlin, from which place she has recently arrived, she will be enabled to give satisfaction on all work entrusted to her. Evening Toilets made up according to the latest Parisian and Berlin fashions.

LEGAL AND COMMERCIAL UNION MERCANTILE AGENCY.

We have used your Commercial Agency, also others, and take pleasure in saying we like yours as well as any we have tried, and think it equally as good as those which cost more money.

NORDYKE & MARMON CO., Detroit.

Your Agency is of great benefit to us in obtaining the standing of men at the time we wish to deal with them. We like it better than any Agency we ever belonged to.

W. N. FLINT & Co.,
Wholesale Granite Dealers, Monson, Mass.

Your Agency is certainly one of the best mediums for collecting in the country. We have tried them all and pronounce yours the best

J. M. FAHNESTOCK & Co.,
Wholesale Soap Dealers, Pittsburg.

One of the strongest points in favor of this Agency, is, that our list of correspondents is composed of reliable lawyers who are under a contract. They are not a secret list, and our business is transacted openly and above board. We do not overestimate a friend, or to vent some petty malice underestimate others.

Thirty thousand business men use this Agency. We invite criticism and challenge comparison, and are in the field to stay.

Office 48, Union Block.

The Phonograph,

Telephone, Telegraph, and kindred electrical messengers will all be utilized by the orders for Sozodont, which will be flashed and sounded over the wires. It is as well known abroad as at home as a cleansing agent for the teeth.

All who Suffer from coughs, colds, bronchitis, croup whooping cough, and the most to be dreaded of all, Consumption, can find sure relief in Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which cures when other remedies fail.

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

No people in the world suffer as much with Dyspepsia as Americans. Although years of experience in medicine had failed to accomplish a certain and sure remedy for this disease and its effects, such as Sour Stomach, Heart burn, Water brash Sick Headache, Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Liver Complaint, coming up of the food, low spirits, general debility, etc., yet since the introduction of Green's August Flower we believe there is no case of Dyspepsia that cannot be immediately relieved. 30,000 dozen sold last year without one case of failure reported. Go to your Druggist and get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve you. Regular size 75 cents.

PROPOSED LEBANON AND SANTIAM CANAL.

Something about the prospects of a Live Linn County Town.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE OREGONIAN.]

LEBANON, Aug. 13.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state, by the following named citizens of Linn county: L. Elkins, D. W. Ballard, C. B. Montague, J. W. Cusick, C. H. Ralston, Jacob Koos, A. Ervin, J. M. Powell, F. M Miller and W. B. Donaca, incorporating the Lebanon and Santiam Water Ditch or Canal and Manufacturing Co. The capital stock is $30,000 in shares of $100 each. It is the intention of the company to take the water for the proposed canal out of the South Santiam river, at a point about a half a mile above the present village of Waterloo, and carry the same over a route already surveyed to Lebanon near the terminus of the Albany and Lebanon railroad, where a sufficient fall can be obtained for milling, manufacturing and warehouse purposes. From the known ability, energy and enterprise of the incorporators, there is no doubt but the Lebanon and Santiam canal will be pushed to a speedy completion.

Geographically speaking the town of Lebanon is peculiarly favored, although heretofore somewhat overshadowed by its big sister Albany. It is nearly in the center of the agricultural portion of the most productive farming county in the state and it unquestionably commands the outlet of the Sweet Home valley, mountain wagon road, the Grass-ridge country, Waterloo, Sodaville and the fine country in the forks of the Santiam to the east and southeast of Lebanon. Thousands upon thousands of acres of the finest quality of cedar are within easy reach of the river, while along the banks of the south Santiam, a stream considered by mill men as unsurpassed for rafting purposes, grow perhaps as fine bodies of red and yellow fir as can be found on the Pacific coast. From close and careful estimates made by experienced mill men, it is computed that on the completion of the proposed canal, logs can be landed at Lebanon at less than one half the sum per 1000 feet that it costs the Calipooia company to run logs to Albany.

This present season there will be shipped by the Albany and Lebanon railroad not less than 250,000 bushels of wheat from Lebanon, and next season large quantities of land which have heretofore, on account of distance from transportation facilities, been kept for pasturage, will be put in cultivation, and with every natural advantage in its favor there is no reason why Lebanon shall not in the course of a very few years be one of the largest and best railroad towns and shipping points in the state.

True the O. & C. R. R. showed good business judgment in constructing their branch road from Albany to this place, and if their management is characterized by a moderate freight and passenger tariff so as to insure the continuance of the good will of the agricultural and mercantile community, their branch road will prove for them a very remunerative enterprise, and for the citizens of this vicinity, an almost indispensable necessity.

SONG OF THE ICEBERG

FROM AN OLD SCRAP BOOK.

From the frozen heart of the glittering North
Exulting I ve burst away
On the ocean tide forever to ride—
Ha ha who biddeth me stay?

I am not old for a thousand years
Have but brightened my crystal blood
I fill my cup with the storm-cloud s tears
And gather the snows for food

Men quake as the lifting folds of storm
Uncover my ghastly face
There is woe in the sweep of my glan arm
There is death in my chill embrace

To our ice barred lands the pigmy race
Unbidden essayed to pass—
I beckoned my brothers to come apace
And we shivered their fleets like glass

But there came a youth to our desolate realm
A pale and slender man
With nerve of iron he grasped the helm,
And laughed at our idle ban

He fastened his ship in a rock bound bay—
The ice is around her still
But we could not hinder his northward way
Or fetter that chainless will

The silent shores of the uttermost sea
With reverent feet he trod—
We knew by the glance of his sleepless eye
That he was the Sent of God

From the frozen heart of the glittering north
Exulting I ve burst away
On the ocean tide forever to ride—
Ha ha who biddeth me stay,

I'll wander away to the tropic isles;
I ll traverse the realms of noon
Antarctic kinsmen are waiting for me—
I ll join their revelry soon !

But what is this in the atmosphere?
And what is that eye of flame
That burns and burns to my very heart,
And withers my giant frame?

I have shivered the lightnings on my breast—
I have mocked at the whirlwind s mood—
But the sun hath smitten my shining crest
And the ocean drinks my blood !

COMMENTS ON HANCOCK'S LETTER.

A Document Without a Claw

[From the Philadelphia Press]

A more inane and pointless letter could not well have been written. Who can tell whether Hancock sustains the national or the federative idea of the republic? Who can say whether he advocates or opposes unlimited silver? Who can answer whether he approves or resists paper inflation? Who can determine whether he favors or condemns the protection of American labor? Who can indicate whether he has even the germ of an idea for the regulation of the civil service? His letter will be searched in vain for a claw as to whether he has any thoughts on these questions.

Rehashed from the Resolutions of '98.

[From the Cincinnati Commercial]

There are some marks of Hancock himself in the letter accepting the Cincinnati nomination for the presidency He seems to have refreshed himself for the task by reading the resolutions of '98 The symptoms of freshness is in the laborious recital of the familiar definitions of the respective powers of the nation and states. Old Virginia will be delighted

Barren Pickings for the Independent Voter.

[From the Springfield Republican, Ind.]

What is there in this letter to prove Gen Hancock s comprehension of the pressing political questions of government, to indicate his intention and ability to deal with them wisely? Simply nothing He talks effectively in sonorous generalities, but to the voter who regards Gen. Hancock as an unknown quantity, and views his election to the presidency in the light of a leap in the dark, this letter of acceptance says and means nothing The democratic candidate has listened to the urgent demands of New York advisers, and in effect, "thrown away his pen" He offers barren picking to the earnest, conscientious independent voter, whose sober preference is going to decide the doubtful national results.

No Indication of Opinion.

[From the Buffalo Express.

Gen Hancock shows plainly either that he has no opinions at all on the public affairs of the country or that he is afraid or ashamed to express them His letter is compounded of glittering generalities and nothing else We know nothing of his views before reading it. We know just as little now

Darkness Visible.

[From the Boston Herald Ind]

Upon nearly every dubious point in politics Gen. Hancock has kept his principles to himself The country knew little or nothing with regard to his position on many issues of the gravest moment. It looked to his letter of acceptance for light. The letter has come, and the darkness is unbroken.

A Sophomorical Composition.

The fulsome praise which democratic organs bestow upon the broad statesmanship of Gen. Hancock's sophomorical composition are so absurd for serious attention but it is assumed in some quarters that he deliberately and with more or less political sagacity avoided the practical questions of the time for the purpose of presenting nothing for attack He, as a variety of undisputed things " in such a cool ton way because they could not be disputed and everybody would have to agree to them If this were so it would be discreditable enough but the device, shallow as it would be, would be a presumption of more depth in the man than he gives any evidence of The fact is that the emptiness of his letter is a fair indication of the state of his head He writes like a school boy because he has the mind of a school boy, just capable of grasping the conventional generalities of our politics, but utterly devoid of insight and of practical ideas Anybody can descant on the nature of our government and the importance of its proper administration, but in the words of the astute Polonius

"To expostulate
What majesty should be, what duty is,
Why day is day, night night, and time is time,
Were nothing but to waste night, day and time."

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The fourth auditor of the treasury department has addressed a letter to the secretary of the navy, stating that a careful examination had been made of the accounts of the navy department, covering the four years from January 1, 1875, to June 30, 1879 The money transactions of that period amount to $70,561,718, and in disbursing this large sum not a single office has defaulted, nor has a single dollar been lost to the government.

Galusha A. Grow struck something very near an epigram when he said to his republican friends at West Chester, Pa., the other night

If you do change parties, you will entrust the conduct of the government under Hancock to the politicians of the south, who have no industrial interests therefore, no ideas but political ones of industry and commerce.

Business men, as a rule, don t take kindly to political ideas of business.

More than a quarter of a century after its first appearance Canon Kingsley s "Hypatia, or New Foes with an Old Face," is issued as No. 130 of the Franklin Square Library Opinions differed greatly about the novel when it was given to the world Blackwood called it about the wildest book that ever was written But a better opinion, which time has confirmed, was that "Hypatia" was superior in some respects to both "Yeast" and "Alton Locke" clever as they are Passages of striking and vivid beauty abound in the story which shows careful study of private life in the Roman Empire in the fifth century, an age which the author portrays as altogether artificial, slipshod, effete resembling far more the times of Louis Quinze than those of Sophocles and Plato.

A Vast Miscalculation

[From the St. Louis Globe Democrat]

The leaders of the democracy are well aware that a weakness of their party before the people consists in its advocacy of principles diametrically opposed to each other It is conservative or communistic, hard money or soft money, for free trade or protection according to the locality It has a dozen different doctrines for as many states of the union, and it even has speakers equal to the task of advocating them all, as circumstances may require It has an orator who can make a greenback speech in Maine, and a hard-money speech in Massachusetts on the same day, and supplement them after a short night's rest in a sleeping-car with a free-trade harangue in New York, and a protection homily in Pennsylvania on the day following It was this want of cohesion in the political make-up of the party which prompted its leaders to seek for an issue of some kind which might be drawn on for service every where. They thought they saw a grand opportunity after Grant's defeat at Chicago to throw a union general in the way of the soldiers and profit by their fancied disappointment They were filled with the idea that they could dress a democrat who had never had anything to do with politics in soldier s clothes and run him separate and apart from their platforms as a personality behind whom the indignant republican soldiers would not look for principles It is already evident that Hancock s nomination has utterly failed to produce the result expected of it A very careful inquiry by the national republican committee shows that the union soldiers were never more solidly opposed to the democratic party than now It is no passive opposition for from General Grant down they are active and earnest in support of Garfield and Arthur In fact the vote which Hancock was expected to catch is the most enthusiastic element in the republican party

The first wheat of the season was furnished the steam mills at Jacksonville last Monday

EASTERN FREIGHTS AND MARKETS

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN]

NEW YORK Aug 14.—The clipper freight market retains all the dull features noted from time to time during the past three months or more and from the present outlook there are no signs of improvement. although it is felt that it cannot be prolonged notwithstanding the efforts of railroad people to coax shippers into making contracts The Frank N Thayer will finish Monday and the A C Blanchard a few days later and the Sintram about the close of the month

Rates for freight, dull and irregular as there is a desire to get vessels off after which an effort will be made to advance prices However it is doubtful of success, as the competition is too great among the three lines and shippers too few to admit of any line putting up rates while there is no harmony among them. Again, several parties who had contracts with one of the lines have refused to continue them and these will constantly be in the market for low rates

The tonnage supply is very limited and there are no available vessels for California lines

Steamer freights are very dull although there is a considerable movement for China of domestic which a company has been seeking for at rates of freight against Suez steamers The isthmus line is being used by railroad as a tender to the overland route. Agents are continually after shippers to make contracts and to such as cannot afford to send all their freight by rail offers are made to carry such freight by steamer Already one large paint firm have accepted such contract and it is thought another will follow To counteract the efforts of the railroad agent the representative of one of our clipper lines left for San Francisco to see merchants and offer inducements to make contracts with his line

Freights at Philadelphia have been more active The Pactolus has finished loading and the agent hopes to get the City of Philadelphia off by the 1st prox

At Boston the market is dull, no ship yet in berth but Van Vleck of this city is negotiating for one to load there

Railroad freights at Boston have been very lively and shipments are heavy

EASTERN MARKETS.

SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Business in merchandise markets is gradually increasing though the season is not sufficiently far advanced to impart to the markets the degree of animation looked for at a late period Prices as a rule are steady, and there are but few or no indications of a speculative advance Breadstuffs rule moderately active at very irregular prices, but on the whole the tendency has been downward, owing to favorable crop reports from most every quarter

Provisions active, prices very steady

Rio coffee, though slow, is very firm at the recent advance.

Refined sugars are in good demand and the market is kept clear of surplus production at firm prices.

Teas—Fair demand at full prices auction sale yesterday was considered fair

Foreign fruits continues quiet Valencia raisins quoted at 8¼, prime layers $2@2 05 prunes, very dull old, 3½@4 new 6 currants more active and higher new 5½ dried apples, dull and weak no new offering

Hops continue quiet stocks held above buyers views.

Borax steady and quiet.

Quicksilver firm at recent advance held at 43½ @44

Hides remain quiet sales 6000 California 22c thirty days. Leather, fair demand and firm

Turpentine steady at 37

Sperm oil steady

Whale oil firm at an advance of 1c

Petroleum dull.

Pig iron in good demand although not active prices as a rule are firm at $28@28 50 for No. 1. X.

Manufactured irons in fair demand prices steady

Pig lead dull at 5 for common.

Tin plate less active, but firmly held.

Hardware—Fair demand and prices firm

Wool remains quiet sales of 80 000 pounds California private.

CHICAGO MARKETS

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN]

CHICAGO Aug 14.—The grain market has been quiet during the greater part of the week and the flurry in corn for two or three days, caused by well authenticated reports of drought in the great corn growing belt of Illinois and Kansas has served to stir up the clements no change to an unusual degree. Wheat and oats sympathized fully with the extraordinary advance in corn which amounts to about 3½ cents per bushel. There was a reaction of 1 cent at the close.

Provisions, under the skilled control of the largest operator on change remain strong and the tendency, especially for pork, is continually upward the directors of the board of trade fixed $14 50 as the price at which sellers of mess pork could call margins of buyers on September contracts This has no practical bearing on Mr. Armour's corner in pork, and it will probably proceed

Sales for the week were, Wheat, for September, $86½@89c corn 39½@39, oats, 22½@25 pork, $15 40@16 95 lard, $7 20@7 75

Closing cash prices Wheat, 89½@89¾ corn, 37¾@37½ oats, 25c rye, 66¾ barley 75c pork $16 ¼@16½c lard $7 70 Closing September prices: Wheat, 88½c corn 37¾c oats 24½c pork, $16 65 lard $7 70@7 72½

Receipts for the week Wheat 515,000 centals corn, 2,656 000, oats, 484,000 Shipments Wheat, 884400 centals corn 2 586,000 oats 477 000 Receipts same time last year Wheat, 582 000 centals corn 1,880,000, oats, 448,000 Shipments Wheat, 1,177,000 centals corn 2,118,000 oats 308 000 The movement corresponds closely with that of last year and the year preceding

Boston Wool Market.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN]

BOSTON, Aug. 14.—The wool market is very quiet Though prices show no material change the tendency is downward. Stocks are increasing, and most holders are free sellers at current rates Manufacturers are indifferent about purchasing, evidently waiting to see the market show more life before operating freely Total sales have largely decreased as compared with those of last week Fat washed fleeces The tendency of prices is decidedly in favor of buyers and at the close the demand for combing and delaine fleeces was active and full prices were obtained for this description California wool—very little inquiry for medium Unwashed wools in moderate request, pulled wools dull prices settled down. No movement of any importance in foreign wool Sales include Ohio Pennsylvania and West Virginia fleeces, XXX and medium at 46a48c Michigan and medium 40a42c medium Wisconsin 40c coarse No. 2 fleeces, 3 ½c combing and delaine fleeces, 40@51c. Kentucky combing 33c do unwashed combing and delaine 27a28c, coarse Missouri combing, 33@35c new valley Oregon 35c Texas fine territory 25a30c; Indiana unwashed medium, 35½c, unwashed and unmerchantable fleeces 26½a30c; spring California 26a37c fall do 18a24c scoured 45a65c tub washed, 40a45c, super and X pulled 40a50c, Australian New Zealand 45@48c Monte Video, 88c. The total sales of the week were 1,271,200 lbs of which 1,028 900 lbs were domestic.

HARVEST IN EUROPE

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN

LONDON, Aug 14.—A weekly grain circular says wheat cutting is now general in the early district. The crop in South Essex appears to be a fair average as to quantity and very fine in quality

The crop in Devonshire is the best since 1868, but in the midland counties and in Lincolnshire and Yorkshire prospects are very unfavorable the injury done is being wholly reparable even by fine weather Estimates of the French crop which a short time ago ranged from 90 000,000 to 95 000 000 hectolitres now appears to be from 85 000 000 to 6 000,000. No trustworthy estimate of the final yield can be made yet but the total yield of 90 000,000 would make necessary an importation of 1,000 000 hectolitres. The German harvest is delayed and injured by wet weather Prices at Berlin are higher than a week or a fortnight ago Fresh shipments to the United Kingdom from sources other than American remain very limited

BERLIN Aug. 14 —Crop prospects Upper Silesia and East Prussia are very gloomy

The Future of the Wheat Market.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN]

NEW YORK Aug 14 —The Commercial Bulletin accepting the most liberal estimates advanced as to the import requirements of Europe and reducing Russia s probable export to an extreme minimum says the quantity of wheat required of us will be under a hundred million bushels Yet we are likely to have some 225,000 000 available for other purposes that our ordinary domestic consumption Nothing but exceedingly low prices will enable this enormous surplus to be disposed of.

Catarrhal

Dr SCOTT

Wei De Meyer's Treatise on Catarrh, explains the following important facts

1 That Catarrhal Colds become a poisonous infection, at first local and finally constitutional

2 That, being constitutional the infection is beyond the reach of mere local remedies.

3 That impurities in the nostrils are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs thus poisoning the Digestive Respiratory and Genito urinary organs

4 That Catarrhal virus follows the mucous membrane and causes Deafness Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa Bronchitis Leucorrhœa and Consumption

5 That Smokes, Douches Inhalations and Insoluble Snuffs cannot possibly remove infectious inflammation from the organs named

6 That an antidote for Catarrh must possess an inoculative affinity for and the quality of being absorbed by, the purulent mucous wherever located.

Based upon these plain theories Dr. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure has proved to be infallible It not only relieves, it cures Catarrh at any stage Home testimony:

Cured! Cured! Cured! Cured!

W D WOODS 457 Broadway N Y Cured of Chronic Catarrh

L F NEWMAN 105 Fulton St Brooklyn cured of 4 years Chronic Catarrh

MRS J. SWARTS Jr 200 Warren St Jersey City, cured of 18 years Chronic Catarrh

&c. &c &c &c &c

A real cure for this terrible malady is the most important discovery for the relief of human suffering since vaccination. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure is sold by all Druggists, or delivered by D B DEWEY & Co; 46 Dey St., N Y for $1.50 a package. To Clubs six packages for $7.50. YOUNG MEN

WHO MAY BE SUFFERING FROM the effects of youthful follies or indiscretion will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. DR SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure

MIDDLE AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue again changing to a dark and torpid appearance There are many men who die of this difficulty ignorant of the cause which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs
